

Presented by KENNINGTON BIOSCOPE & film historian KEVIN BROWNLOW

SILENT WESTERN SATURDAY 11 MARCH 10AM UNTIL LATE

Hitch your wagon, fasten your gun belt, saddle your horse and ride with Broncho Billy Anderson, William S. Hart, Tom Mix and Texas 'Queen of the West' Guinan. Featuring THUNDERING HOOFS (1924), THE NARROW TRAIL (1917) and THE DEVIL HORSE (1926). The main film is Henry King's classic contemporary Western THE WINNING OF BARBARA WORTH (1926) with Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky, plus Gary Cooper in his first major screen role.

LIVE MUSIC from world renowned musicians. All day Cinema Museum CAFÉ & BAR. CAFÉ JAMYANG is nextdoor for booking lunch takeaway or an evening seated meal.

The Cinema Museum, 2 Dugard Way, Renfrew Road, London SE11 4TH. Tel: 020 7840 2200.
www.cinemamuseum.org.uk Programme and booking at www.kenningtonbioscope.com

THE CINEMA MUSEUM
LONDON

